KIC Products And Clean Team Company Merge To Form KICTeam

AUBURN, Maine—June 2, 2008—KIC Products, the industry leader in the manufacture of cleaning cards, is pleased to announce that they have joined forces with Clean Team Company, an original developer and manufacturer of technical cleaning products, to become one united front as KICTeam, effective immediately.

“Both companies have a solid reputation and excellent track record across the industries they serve,” said Peter Klein, president and CEO, KIC Products. “We saw this as a natural fit designed to raise the profile of the importance of cleaning cards. We look forward to continuing to develop cutting edge technology that boosts the visibility of and preference for cleaning cards.”

“The merger enables KICTeam to increase capacity, offer an expanded product base and provide superior customer service to current and future customers,” stated Timothy S. Smith, COO/CFO, Clean Team Company. “We recently partnered with KIC Products and developed a cleaning card that combined Clean Team’s Lucky Stripe technology with KIC Products’ Waffletechnology™. By combining our expertise we will develop better products for existing and future KICTeam customers.”

The merger makes KICTeam the world market leader providing more than 400 technical cleaning product solutions and servicing over 1,300 customers worldwide. KICTeam will continue to work from Auburn, Maine and San Diego, California, with Auburn serving as its headquarters.
